

In the Construction Center

Children learn to...

- Develop fine motor skills
- Express themselves through construction materials
- Repeat a simple pattern
- Develop perceptual awareness
- Develop pincher control
- Participate in cooperative play
- Express individual thoughts and feelings through constructions
- Experiment informally with a variety of simple materials
- Acquire the meaning of vocabulary words relating to concepts
- Make choices
- Make decisions