

Grade 1
Phonics Reader 30

Sue Blew a Big Bubble
by Myka-Lynne Sokoloff
illustrated by
Andy Levine

Phonics Skills:

- Vowel patterns ew, ue
- Inflected ending -es
- Plural -es

Scott Foresman

by Myka-Lynne Sokoloff
illustrated by Andy Levine

This book belongs to

Phonics for Families: This book provides practice reading words with the vowel patterns ew and ue, as in chew and clue; action words that end with -es; plurals that are formed by adding -es; and the high-frequency words better, people, and give. Read the story together. Then ask your child to find the story words with the vowel patterns ew and ue.

Phonics Skills: Vowel patterns ew, ue; Inflected ending -es; Plurals -es

High-Frequency Words: better, people, give

Sue Blew a Big Bubble

by Myka-Lynne Sokoloff
illustrated by Andy Levine

Scott Foresman

Editorial Offices: Glenview, Illinois • New York, New York
Sales Offices: Reading, Massachusetts • Duluth, Georgia
Glenview, Illinois • Carrollton, Texas • Menlo Park, California

Look at Sue!
She looks much better!
And she can blow a bubble too.

This is Sue.
 What's new with Sue?
 Sue can blow a bubble.
 She is big!

© Scott Foresman 1

First Mom kisses Sue.
 Then she helps.
 Sue gets a trim.

Sue finds her mother.
Mom knows what to do.

Here is little Sue.
Little Sue makes wishes.
What does she wish to do?
Here's a clue:

Sue can't see herself.
So she gets a few boxes.
Then she watches herself.
She chews and blows.
But she can't do it!

Pop!
The gum sticks like glue!
What does Sue do?
Here's a clue:

Sue doesn't know what to do.
She reaches for Drew.
He does not know what to do.

Sue watches people chew.
Most of all she watches Drew.
Drew teaches Sue.

Sue chews and chews.
Then Sue blows.
She blows till she is blue!
Sue doesn't give up.

One day, Sue blows and blows.
She blows a bubble.
It grows and grows and grows!